

SAMUEL FROTHINGHAM.

JANUARY 3, 1832.

Mr. MITCHELL, of South Carolina, from the Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, made the following

REPORT:

The Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, in the case of Samuel Frothingham, report:

That he enlisted in 1776, for six months, in Capt. Churchill's company, Colonel Comfort Sage's regiment: that his term of service having expired, he, in 1777, enlisted in the regiment of Colonel Return J. Meigs, and served until 1781, when he was discharged on account of disability. He was placed on the pension list, under the act of 1818, but stricken off under that of 1820; he having then in his possession a small farm, which has been since taken from him on account of his debts: recommend him to be placed on the pension list from first of January, 1830.

SAMUEL PROTHINGHAM

JANUARY 1850

Mr. Mitchell, of South Carolina, from the Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, made the following

REPORT

The Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, in the case of Samuel Prothingham, report:

That he enlisted in 1776, for six months, in Capt. Churchill's company, Colonel Connor's regiment; that his term of service having expired, he, in 1777, enlisted in the regiment of Colonel Henry J. Mudge, and served until 1781, when he was discharged on account of disability. He was placed on the pension list, under the act of 1818, but without effect, until 1820; he having then in his possession a small loan, which has been since taken from him on account of his debts; recommended him to be placed on the pension list from first of January, 1830.
